

CHECKLIST FOR PSYCHOLOGY GRADUATE APPLICATIONS

Submit the following to: University of New Mexico
Office of Admissions
Attn: Graduate Studies
MSC06 3720
P.O. Box 4849
Albuquerque, NM 87196-4849

_____ UNM Application
(apply online or download paper application: <http://www.unm.edu/grad/admissions/admissions.html>)

_____ Non-refundable Application Fee of $50.00

_____ One Official Transcript from each institute attended (exception: UNM transcript)

Submit the following to: Department of Psychology
University of New Mexico
MSC03 2220
1 University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131

_____ Department of Psychology Application (download paper application: http://psych.unm.edu/grad_admissions.html)

_____ Statement of Interest/Letter of Intent: A Personal Letter citing your specific interests and long-term goals in psychology, and indicating two faculty members whose research interests correspond most closely with your own. (Consult the enclosed list of faculty interests).

_____ One official transcript from each institute attended

_____ Three Letters of Recommendation: These should be from faculty members (preferably in psychology) who have had direct experience with your work. Each letter should include a Letter of Recommendation form.

_____ GRE Scores: General and Psychology subject (must be official, see GRE information below)

OPTIONAL:

_____ Optional: Writing sample, abstract or copy of any research either published or reported at professional meetings.

_____ Curriculum Vitae (CV)

The Educational Testing Service must mail an official copy of your GRE scores, including the Psychology subject test, to the Department of Psychology (address above).

- UNM Institution Code: 4845
- UNM Psychology Department Code: 2016

If you would like to be notified when your application has been received by the Department of Psychology, submit a request via e-mail to advising@unm.edu or include a self addressed envelope in your package.